WIOA Background

Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) was signed into law by President Barack Obama on July 22, 2014 and went into effect on July 1, 2015. WIOA supersedes the Workforce Investment Act of 1998 (WIA) and amends the Adult Education and Family Literacy Act, the Wagner – Peyser Act, and the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. The federal regulations, United States Department of Labor (USDOL), One-Stop Delivery System sections include §678.300 -- §678.900, §463.300 -- §463.900, and §361.300 -- §361.900. A general description of the One-Stop Delivery System, in by the federal regulations, is a “seamless customer-focused service delivery network.”

WIOA is the first Congressional reform of the public workforce system in more than 15 years. This bi-partisan legislation reaffirms the roles of Local Workforce Development Boards (LWDBs) and the One-Stop career center system. WIOA will help jobseekers and workers access employment, education, training, and supportive services to succeed in the labor market, as well as match businesses with skilled workers needed to compete in the global economy. WIOA federal funding, with oversight by LWDBs, is used to serve two primary customers—businesses and jobseekers.

At the state level, WIOA establishes a unified strategic planning process across core programs such as Wagner – Peyser Employment Service and Title I of the Rehabilitation Act programs. WIOA also streamlines the membership of business-led state and local workforce development boards, and emphasizes the role of boards in coordinating and aligning workforce programs to meet the needs of both jobseekers and businesses. At the local level, WIOA provides flexibility in providing incumbent worker training and transitional jobs as allowable activities and promotes work-based training such as apprenticeships and on-the-job training with reimbursement. By promoting work-based training activities, jobseekers will earn industry recognized credentials aligned to a career pathway.

Proposers are strongly encouraged to read the USDOL’s WIOA resource page for WIOA information and the latest updates by going to https://www.doleta.gov/wioa/.
