

Press Release

Louisa Ewert, County Treasurer

Rock Island County property owners have until Wednesday, November 7th, 2018 to pay the fourth, and final installment of 2017 Real Estate property taxes. If taxes are not paid on time, taxpayers must pay a 1.5 % penalty per month until paid or sold.

Payments may be made at the County Office Building 1504 3rd Ave Rock Island in the County Treasurer's Office from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Mon.-Fri. However, Rock Island County Offices will be closed Tuesday, November 6th, 2018 for Election Day. There is 24 hour Drop Box in front of the County Office Building.

Payments bearing a U. S. Postmark up to and including Wednesday, November 7th, 2018 will be accepted without penalty. Reference PIN# when paying by Online Bill Pay. Payments can also be made at most locally owned Banks and some Credit Unions in Rock Island County during regular business hours. When paying at a Bank, you must have entire statement including stubs. Area Banks will not accept payments after the final due date of November 7th, 2018. Online payments can be made without penalty up until 11:30pm on November 7th @ www.rockislandcounty.org by credit card, Visa debit or e-check. A convenience fee will be charged. Online payments will not be accepted after November 7th, 2018.

Also Note:

Effective November 20th, 2018 only cash, cashier's check, certified check or money order will be accepted as payment.

Taxes not paid by Friday, November 30th, 2018 will be published in the paper as delinquent. ($10.00 certified mailing & publication fee will also be added.)
