

Who can complete this application? We can accept the notarized signature of the owner of record and the lessee on this application. If someone other than the owner or lessee signs this form, including an agent under power of attorney, this application will NOT be accepted.

Eligibility: To be eligible for the General Homestead Exemption via a leasehold interest:

- The property must be a single-family home occupied by the applicant as their primary residence on or before January 1, 2021;
- The eligible lessee must be liable for paying the 2021 real estate taxes on the subject property as evidenced by a written lease that was executed and effective on January 1, 2021, that also includes the period of tax liability (January 1, 2021 through December 31, 2021).
- Application must be submitted to the chief county assessment office by June 30, 2021;
- The eligible lessee's lease must substantially conform with the language in 35 ILCS 200/15-175e:
 - "Lessee shall be liable for the payment of real estate taxes with respect to the residence in accordance with the terms and conditions of Section 15-175 of the Property Tax Code (35 ILCS 200/15-175). The permanent real estate index number for the premises is (insert number), and, according to the most recent property tax bill, the current amount of real estate taxes associated with the premises is (insert amount) per year. The parties agree that the monthly rent set forth above shall be increased or decreased pro rata (effective January 1 of each calendar year) to reflect any increase or decrease in real estate taxes. Lessee shall be deemed to be satisfying Lessee's liability for the above mentioned real estate taxes with the monthly rent payments as set forth above (or increased or decreased as set forth herein)."

In addition, if there is a change in lessee, or if the lessee vacates the property, the chief county assessment officer requires the owner of the property to notify the chief county assessment office of that change, in writing, within 30 days of the change or vacation.
